

Police Traffic Stops

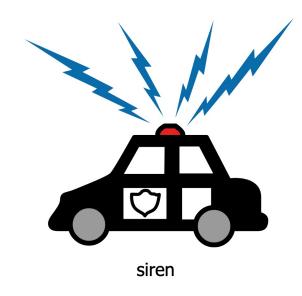

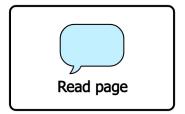

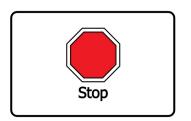

Police sirens are loud.

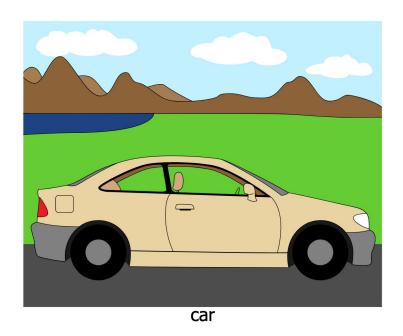

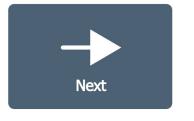

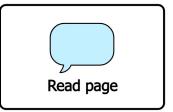

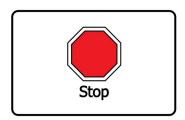

If a police car put the sirens on and drive behind my car, I pull over safely and stop the car on the side of the road.

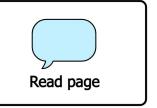

I put the window down and greet the police officer.

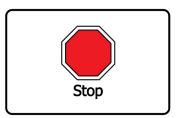

police officer

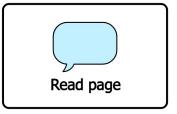

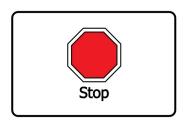

I tell the officer I am autistic.

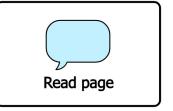

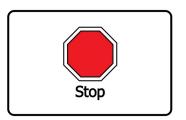

I keep my hands on the wheel and don't reach for anything unless asked.

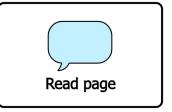

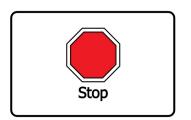

I show my driver's license when asked.

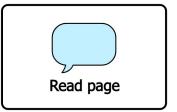

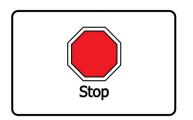

I will never get out of the car unless asked. I will not run away.

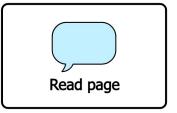

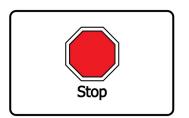

I might get a traffic ticket. It is a bill I pay when I get home.

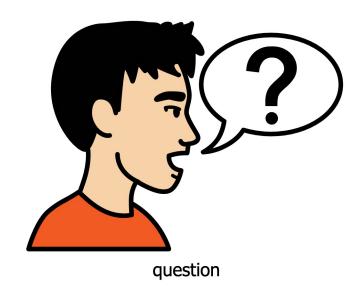

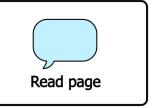

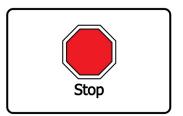

If I don't understand, then I use my calm voice to ask questions.

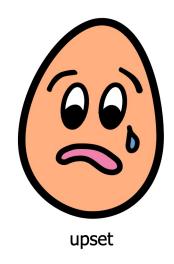

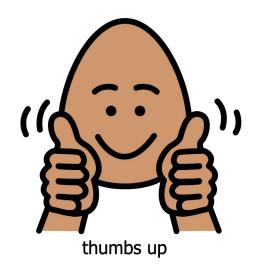

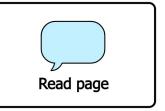

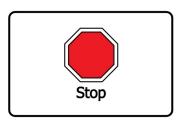

I might feel upset but it is okay.

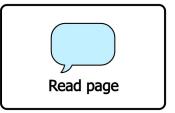

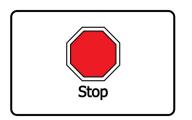

Police officers are here to keep us safe.

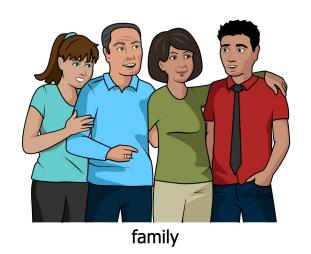

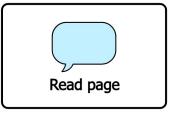

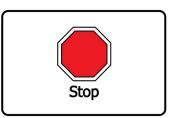

Traffic stops may be stressful. I can talk to someone I trust about it.

The End

What would you like to do now?
